Thanksgiving Training Days and Women's-Only Class

Fri/Sat, Nov. 23-24,
2007

Thanksgiving Training Days: TTC is pleased to announce a special trials training clinic during the Thanksgiving weekend for riders of all skill levels. There will be two separate days of training with professional riding coaches to help you improve your skills and have a great time doing it. The format will follow a sort of "mini training days" setup and will include series of practice sections, each designed to test specific skills such as hills and camber, rock steps, rocky creek beds, etc. Each section will include lines for a variety of skill levels. An instructor will be posted at each section to demonstrate techniques, help riders pick lines, encourage and coach riders in the proper techniques, and identify problems and correct riding form. Riders will move as a group from section to section to practice a variety of skills and different terrain.

Women's Only Class: Women's national champ and World #9 Louise Forseley will conduct a special training class for women only, proceeds to help Louise with travel expenses to compete in Europe next year! Louise will work with the women's group for this two day period and demonstrate the skills and determination she has used to improve to the top woman rider in America.
